

DISTRACTED???

PART 1

What are some choices you could make this week in order to go after eternal things and not the things of this world?

PART 2

Now that you have some items listed, it's your job to pick two of them and follow through this week. Which two will you pick?

PART 3

Someone once said, "We don't do what's expected. We do what's inspected." That means, we usually follow through on stuff when we know that someone will hold us accountable. So each of you needs to pick an accountability partner for the week who will ask you how you are doing with the two things you chose to focus on.
